This is to certify the above student has been an ACTIVE member in good standing for at least one year. Our church cooperates in the work of the Florida Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention. The student has discussed his/her call of God to Christian ministry as a vocation. Evidence is demonstrated of that call and he/she is actively involved in opportunities for Christian service in our church and community. As this student from our church enrolls in The Baptist College of Florida, I shall help and encourage him/her in every way possible toward development in Christian ministry as a vocation.
